Dear Ms. Renata Hesse:

Enough is enough. Please put a stop to the economically-draining witch-hunt against Microsoft.

Microsoft has already agreed to hide its Internet Explorer icon from the desktop. The issue is resolved.

The fact is, this case against Microsoft is basically "welfare" for Netscape and other Microsoft competitors. Not a nickel goes to those supposedly harmed by Microsoft - the computer user.

This is just another method for states to get free money, and a terrible precedent for the future, not only in terms of computer technology, but all sorts of innovations in the most dynamic industry the world has ever seen.

Please put a stop to this travesty of justice now. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Karyn Morton
